ANTI-BULLYING WEEK: 11TH-15TH NOVEMBER

Dear Parents and Carers,

It is that time of year once more where there is a special focus on Anti-Bullying. This year's theme is all about choosing respect. As you know, respect is one of the school's values and one which we have worked hard with children to develop and encourage.

Throughout the week we will be thinking about the theme of respect and exploring this through our collective worship and class activities.

Odd socks

Once again, we will be celebrating uniqueness and diversity by joining in with 'Odd socks day':

Most importantly, Odd Socks Day is designed to be fun! It's an opportunity to encourage people to express themselves and celebrate their individuality and what makes us all unique! There is no pressure to wear the latest fashion or to buy expensive costumes. All you have to do to take part is wear odd socks to your school, at work or at home, it couldn't be simpler! Odd socks day will be on Tuesday 12th November and everyone (including you!) is welcome to join in!

Our Anti-Bullying Ambassador team will be working across the school to create a very special display to mark the week and the work on respect.

We look forward to the week and seeing everyone's odd socks!

Many thanks,

Mr Carter
