

Maths Charter

I approach mathematics with a 'can do' attitude and like learning from mistakes.	I can answer mathematical questions using full sentences and use the correct mathematical vocabulary.
I can identify connections with my mathematical learning and share these with others.	I show perseverance and independence during maths lessons; I am prepared to grapple with maths.
I use manipulatives and representations to help develop my mathematical knowledge and understanding.	I can explain to others my mathematical understanding.