YEAR THREE TEACHING TEAM: SEALIONS CLASS

Dear Parents/Carers of pupils in Sealions class,

I am writing to update you of a change to the teaching team in the coming weeks.

As you may know, Miss Catt has been on maternity leave and will be due to return to school and teaching duties in the next week.

This will mean that we will be saying, 'Goodbye' to Miss Hill who has been supporting the school in the last year in Miss Catt's absence. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Miss Hill for all her hard work and support in Seals and Sealions class over the last year. We will miss Miss Hill, but wish her every success in her new school.

We are very pleased to be welcoming Miss Catt back to school and I know that she will be keen to get to know the children, parents and carers of everyone in Sealions.

The week will look like this:

Monday - Wednesday:	Miss Catt
Thursday and Friday:	Mrs Harvey

Parent/Carer Consultations for the class will take place on Wednesday 5th, Thursday 6th and Thursday 13th February. Full details can be found on the letter sent separately.

Kind regards

Daniel Carter
Headteacher
